

Erene Anthony: B.A., B.Ed, M.A. is a lifelong educator who has taught in Elementary and High schools in Antigua and Montreal. She has served for 16 years as Vice Principal and Principal of many schools in the Montreal area. She is a licensed Financial Security Advisor and Mutual Fund Representative and for the past 11 years has spent much of her time informing families on how to become financially independent.

Ms Anthony received the Prime Minister of Antigua Outstanding Citizenship Award for Community work outside Antigua; the Jackie Robinson Award: from the Montreal Black Business Persons & Professionals; She is an Honorary Member of the Antigua & Barbuda Association and was named CJAD Hero of the Month, June 2014.

She is an active volunteer in church and community organizations and in August 2014 was profiled as Volunteer par Excellence by the Quebec Provincial Association of Retired School Educators (QPARSE)

Union United Church: Over the years, Ms Anthony served as Chair of the Congregation., Worship & Music, Membership & Fellowship and as Secretary of the Official Board. She presently serves as Chair of the Official Board Union United Church; Chair of the Joint Presbytery/ Union Building Task Force and Coordinator of the Church Band & Recorder Group.

Montreal Presbytery: Here, she serves as Member of the Executive, Member of the Finance and Extension Board (F&E) and chairs the Mission Support Committee and the Hugh Duncan Scholarship Committee of the (F&E).

United Church of Canada: Ms Anthony presently serves on the National Scholarship Scholarship Committee. She is a former member of the Ethnic Ministries Committee and the Steering Committee- Journeys of Black Peoples.

Community

Ms Anthony is a Program Director of the Quebec Provincial Association Board of Retired School Educators (QPARSE). She serves on the Executive:of the Antigua & Barbuda Association and well as with the Directors de Association Chelaine Du Millénaire (pour les élèves de Cachiman –Haiti).

Erene finds time to share the gifts and talents that God has granted her and is most grateful that over the past 11 years, she continues to be called upon by parents to advocate for them or to assist them with challenges facing their children in the school system. Confidently she says, “ I know my calling is a life of service and I know Who directs my path.”